

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee
Department of Mathematical Sciences
Teaching Academic Staff (Lecturer) Position

The Department of Mathematical Sciences invites applications for a nine-month Teaching Academic Staff (Lecturer) position, starting in January 2013. This position is probationary and may lead to indefinite appointment. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: coordinating the instruction of Math 105 Intermediate Algebra, assisting in orientation and training of new instructors, teaching introductory mathematics including Math 105, reviewing the content and pedagogy in the Math 105 and other activities supporting the instruction of developmental mathematics at the collegiate level. Successful candidates will be expected to exhibit strong leadership, exercise initiative and have excellent communication skills and the ability to work effectively as part of a team.

Minimum qualifications include a Master's, PhD or EdD in Mathematics, Mathematics Education or a related field, 6 years of teaching in either High School or at the collegiate level, and an excellent record of teaching. Preferred Qualifications: Experience in supervising teaching, a record of innovative methods of instruction and/or assessment, scholastic publications related to teaching, and a record of educational grant applications or participation.

Candidates must apply online at <http://jobs.uwm.edu/postings/8706>. In addition, applicants should upload a cover letter, a CV, a statement of teaching philosophy, and arrange for three or four letters of recommendation to be uploaded to <https://www.mathjobs.org/jobs/jobs/3910>. Review of applications will begin September 19, 2012 and continue until the position is filled. UW-Milwaukee is an AA/EEO Employer.