

Announcement of Faculty Vacancy in Mathematics Education

The Department of Curriculum and Teaching at Boston University is seeking a qualified candidate for a faculty position in the Mathematics Education program. This is an open vacancy for an assistant professor position (tenure-track) to start September 1, 2011.

Description of Duties

- Develop and teach both undergraduate and graduate courses in mathematics education (PreK-12).
- Conduct a program of scholarly research and publication appropriate for mathematics education.
- Seek external funding for research activities.
- Provide professional academic advisement to students including those seeking licensure for teaching.
- Supervise the research of master's and doctoral students.
- Build positive relations with local schools, other departments at Boston University, the Massachusetts Department of Education, and professional organizations.

Minimum Qualifications

- Doctorate in Mathematics Education or Mathematics
- Record of grant funding and research
- Experience teaching mathematics at the K-12 level

To Apply

Submit a letter of application, professional resume, sample of scholarship and three letters of recommendation to:

Professor Stephan Ellenwood, Chair
Chair
Curriculum & Teaching Department
Boston University School of Education
Two Silber Way
Boston, MA 02215
617-353-3238 (telephone)
617-353-2909 (fax)
ellenwoo@bu.edu

Deadline

The review of applications will begin November 15, 2010 and continue until the position is filled.

Boston University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer