

AMTE/NTLI Fellowship Application

National Technology Leadership Initiative Fellowship.

The National Technology Leadership Initiative (NTLI) fellowships were established to recognize exemplary presentations related to integration of technology in the core content areas at the annual meetings of each participating association. To be considered for this award, please nominate yourself by completing the following information. Send it directly to Gladis Kersaint (Kersaint@coedu.usf.edu or FAX: 813-974-3837)

Presenter's Name(s): _____

Presentation Title: _____

I understand that if selected as the NTLI Fellow, I am obligated to present my AMTE presentation at the Society for Information Technology & Teacher Education (SITE) conference in San Diego, CA during the week of March 29-April 2, 2010. I understand that my SITE conference registration, flight and hotel expenses to the SITE 2010 conference will be paid for by Texas Instruments. I will be responsible for all meals and incidental costs.

I will also submit my AMTE presentation as a manuscript for publication in the Contemporary Issues in Technology and Teacher Education (CITE) journal (www.citejournal.org) by September 1, 2010.

My signature below signifies that I understand and agree to both of the stipulations for the AMTE/NTLI Fellowship as described above: Presenting at the SITE conference and Submitting to the CITE journal.
