

Tenure-Track Faculty Position in Mathematics Education
Minnesota State University, Mankato

The Mathematics and Statistics Department of Minnesota State University, Mankato invites applications for a tenure-track position in Mathematics Education (developmental mathematics emphasis). Applicants must have an earned Ph.D. in Mathematics Education or Ph.D. in Mathematics with a strong emphasis in Mathematics Education (degree requirements completed no later than August 9, 2013); experience teaching developmental mathematics; a masters degree in mathematics (or equivalent); and graduate coursework in mathematics education beyond the masters level. Duties include Teaching, Research, and Program Development. Review of candidates begins on January 11, 2013. Position begins on August 19, 2013. For complete position description and application procedure, see: <http://agency.governmentjobs.com/mankato/default.cfm> or contact the Mathematics and Statistics Department at 507-389-1453. AA/EOE and a member of the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities System.